

1 Matching sentences

Can you match the following parts to make sentences?

- 1. In about a month, John
2. The train leaves
3. On Friday night, we are going to
4. Alan is planning to
5. The consumers like our new products very much,
6. The driver, who caused the accident on the motorway, was very old,
a. have a barbecue party.
b. meet with the General Manager.
c. don't they?
d. wasn't he?
e. at 10.30 p.m. from Paddington Station.
f. is going to start his new job.

Grammar Reference: Future tenses and question tags, page 53

2 Future flights

Check the flight times to answer the questions below.

Example: What time does flight 1152 depart? - It departs at 6:50a.m.

Table with 3 columns: Flight number, Departure, Arrival. Rows include flights 1478, 778, 1152, and 93.

Note: In English, you also use the simple present to talk about future actions. The most common use of this is when talking about schedules and timetables.

- 1. What time does flight 778 arrive? -
2. What time does flight 93 leave? -
3. What time does flight 1478 land? -
4. What time does flight 1152 get in? -

3 New ideas

You're launching a start-up company and you're presenting your ideas to potential investors. Here are your points. Complete the sentences.

Example: We / target / the 25-40 year old consumer. - We're going to target the 25-40 year old consumer.

- 1. We / set up / our headquarters in Los Angeles.
2. The Human Resource Manager / hire / 10 people.
3. Mr Smither / install / the telephone system.
4. I / market / our product nation-wide.
5. We / host / grand opening on Thursday.

