

1 Word building: different countries and nationalities

Based on your work with Unit 8 in the Student's Book, complete the table below.

Country	Adjective	Nationality
_____	_____	The British
_____	French	_____
Germany	_____	_____
Indonesia	_____	_____
_____	Italian	The Italians
Japan	_____	_____
_____	Spanish	The Spanish
_____	Swiss	The Swiss
Turkey	_____	_____
USA	_____	_____

2 Question tags: after the journey

With question tags, when the positive form of the verb is used in one half, the negative form is often used in the second half and vice versa (see the grammar explanation in Unit 8 on page 77 of the Student's Book).

Ask questions by connecting the correct question tags to the following statements. The first one has been done for you.

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1. You went to Japan this summer, | a. wasn't he? |
| 2. You didn't spend much time there, | b. can't he? |
| 3. Your brother was in Indonesia, | c. have you? |
| 4. He's an experienced traveller, | d. did you? |
| 5. He can speak Indonesian | e. isn't he? |
| 6. But you haven't been to Indonesia, | f. isn't he? |
| 7. Oh, your brother is in Japan at the moment, | g. wasn't he? |
| 8. He was going to fly with you to Indonesia, | h. didn't you? |

3 Much and many: travellers' tales

Below is a description of a trip to Bavaria. Fill in the spaces with much, many, little or few to complete the story (see the explanation in Unit 8 on page 77 of the Student's Book).

I flew to Munich for a week last summer and stayed in a hotel there. It is one of the _____ very big cities in Bavaria. _____ people live in Munich and there is _____ to see there, but there are also very _____ interesting sights outside of Munich. There are areas of great natural beauty where _____ people live and where there is _____ or no traffic. So after I had seen Munich a bit, I travelled each day on the train and explored this beautiful country. I can't speak German, but I have _____ problems because _____ people understand English.